

Brian S. Anderson

Executive Director, Head of Payables Solutioning

As part of Wholesale Payments Product Delivery, Brian Anderson leads the Payables Product Solutions Specialist team for Commercial Banking. His team is responsible for delivering end-to-end expertise and guidance on best-in-class payment and connectivity solutions. This includes bringing product innovations to market through internal build and partnerships, providing insight on industry trends and client business case analysis.

Brian has twenty-seven years of financial industry experience, fourteen of which have been with J.P. Morgan. He started his career with a small mutual savings bank in Connecticut. In 2000, he joined Aetna Financial Services as Corporate Cash Manager. Shortly after the acquisition by ING (now Voya Financial), he relocated to Atlanta, Georgia as Treasury Director of the North American Insurance/Broker Dealer operations. Brian joined J.P. Morgan in 2005 as a Sr. Treasury Management Officer covering the Southeast for Corporate Client Banking. In 2011, he relocated to Houston, Texas as Sr. Business Manager for Middle Market Banking and Specialized Industries. As part of this role, Brian established an international team dedicated to sales reporting, big data consumption and research support for the Middle Market business. In 2014, Brian was selected into the JPMC Detroit Service Corps, an engagement initiative aligned with the financial commitment to the revitalization of the city of Detroit.

Brian holds a Masters of Business Administration in Finance from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, a Bachelor Degree in Human Resource Management from Pace University, an Associate of Science Degree from State University of New York at Cobleskill and is a graduate of the Connecticut School of Finance and Management.

Brian lives in Woodbury, Connecticut with his wife Jennifer and four children, Katelynn, Leann, Hunter and Courtney. Outside of J.P. Morgan, Brian is active in the local community through his church and philanthropic activities. He is currently on the Board of Directors for the non-profit Global Relief Association for Crises & Emergencies.
