

Adriana Hochberg is passionate about creating sustainable, equitable, and walkable communities. She leads Montgomery County's efforts to combat climate change and coordinates the development of the Climate Action Plan, a strategic roadmap for the County to cut greenhouse gas emissions by 80 percent by 2027 and 100 percent by 2035. Ms. Hochberg previously spent eleven years with the Government of the District of Columbia, serving in the Office of the City Administrator and as Chief of Staff in the Department of Energy and Environment. Ms. Hochberg has also served as Presidential Management Fellow at the US Environmental Protection Agency and as Coordinator for International Relations at the Konan Town Hall in Japan.