

Bonnie Norman, President, E3 International LLC

Bonnie Norman is President of E3 International, LLC (E3I), providing sustainable energy and resilient infrastructure project development, finance, and advisory services to help clients achieve their energy, economic, and environmental goals—with a focus on developing and transition countries. E3I's global team partners with enterprises, NGOs, governments, and development and finance institutions to accelerate clean energy and resilience investment to support a future where all can thrive. Ms. Norman serves as Board Chair of the Montgomery County (MD) Green Bank Corporation and as a Board Member of the Charles County (MD) Resilience Authority. A LEED Accredited Professional and former corporate real estate executive, she received her Master of Business Administration from Harvard University Graduate School of Business.